

State Bulk Fuel Revolving Loan Fund

What does this program do?

This program helps State governments establish and support revolving loan funds to provide a more cost-effective means of purchasing fuel for remote communities that are not served by surface transportation (highways, transit systems, railways, and waterways) year round.

Who may apply for this program?

- State governments

How may funds be used?

Funds may be used to capitalize a revolving loan fund (RLF) that helps remote communities purchase bulk fuel.

How do we get started?

- Applications for this program are accepted through our National Office
- Call (202) 720-9545 for details
- The application deadline is set each year by a Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA)
 - The deadline for Fiscal Year 2014 is August 1, 2014 NOFA 2014
- Program Resources are available online (i.e., forms, guidance, certifications, etc.)

Who can answer questions?

- Call (202) 720-9545.
- Call the Rural Electric Program staff:
 - Northern U.S. Division at (202) 720-1025
 - Southern U.S. Division at (202) 720-0800

What governs this program?

- Rural Electrification Act of 1936, as amended in 7 U.S.C. 901
- Code of Federal Regulations 7 CFR 1709

NOTE: Because citations and other information may be subject to change, please always consult the program instructions listed in the section above titled “What Governs This Program?” You may also contact your local office for assistance. You will find additional forms, resources, and program information at rd.usda.gov. USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.