NC	Richard Burr Thom Tillis	Madison Cawthorn (11)	Business and Industry Loan Guarantees	Vos3 LLC	$7,600,000		The Rural Development investment will be used to purchase the historic Tapoco lodge in Robbinsville, North Carolina. The historic lodge was built in 1930 by ALCOA Aluminum Company to house Tallassee Power Company employees building a series of dams in the area to create electricity for refining aluminum. The property currently operating 10 months each year, closing in late December and reopening in mid-February. Significant upgrades have been made by the current owners who purchased the Lodge in 2010 and the lodge was renovated again in 2017. The remote mountainous location makes it popular with the motorcyclists and sports car enthusiast while the restaurant is popular with local residents and the summer home community around nearby Lake Santeetia. This brings in a great deal of revenue and jobs for this remote area of the Nantahala National Forest.
NC	Richard Burr Thom Tillis	David Price (04)	Rural Cooperative Development Grants	Carolina Common Enterprise		$200,000	This Rural Development investment will be used to help with technical assistance within the Carolina Common Enterprise (CCE) work plan. They will expand efforts to preserve rural jobs through worker co-op conversions.
